

Independent Living Association: Creative Arts Consortium

Promoting high-quality Independent Livings in San Diego County

San Diego, CA – August 19, 2014 – The Independent Living Association, in conjunction with the Creative Arts Consortium held an arts class at Ruby’s House Independent Living.

Creative Arts Consortium teacher, Carolyn Mogavero, led the arts class that provided the opportunity for residents of the home to create beaded Jewelry. The residents really enjoyed the class and one resident even commented that this was the first time they had an opportunity to create beaded jewelry.

Below is a picture of the beautiful beaded jewelry that was created.

The ILA is facilitated by Community Health Improvement Partners (www.sdchip.org) and funded by the County of San Diego Health and Human Services Agency’s Behavioral Health Services Innovation Program funded by the Mental Health Services Act.
